the UNAM community.

Welcome, Class of 2027, to FES
Cuautitlán, one of the most important faculties in the country!

Did you know that the Facultad de Estudios Superiores Cuautitlán was the first multidisciplinary institution built outside Ciudad Universitaria?

It became the first ENEP (Escuela Nacional de Estudios Profesionales) to attain the status of Faculty, a distinction granted to academic institutions offering doctoral programs, following the approval of the Doctorate in Microbiology in 1980.

Due to the diversity of its academic programs, it is the only UNAM institution that participates in all four Academic Area Councils:

Biological,
Chemical,
and Health Sciences

Physical and Mathematical Sciences and Engineering

Social Sciences

Humanities and the Arts

It offers eight degree programs that are unique within UNAM: Agricultural Engineering, Food Engineering, Diagnostic Biochemistry, Pharmacy, Telecommunications, Systems and Electronics Engineering, Mechanical and Electrical Engineering, Industrial Chemistry, and soon Industrial Cosmetic Chemistry. University Community: Know Your Rights and Responsibilities

As a member of the university community, you have rights and responsibilities that you must observe for the benefit of everyone who is part of this community. We therefore invite you to become familiar with the University Legislation and the General Statute of UNAM.

University
Rights

University
Legislation

General Statute of UNAM

The UNAM Guide to University Rights establishes that:

- ❖ You have the right to be recognized as equal in dignity and not to suffer any form of discrimination.
- ❖ You have the right to think freely, adopt your own ideas, and practice your beliefs, with no limitation other than respect for the rights of others.
- ❖ You have the right to file complaints regarding actions that violate any human or university right.
- ❖ You have the right to inclusion and safety while participating in academic, cultural, sports, and recreational activities within UNAM.

UNAM Guide to University
Rights

Please note that the General Statute of UNAM defines the following actions as grounds for disciplinary sanctions:

- ❖ Art. 95. The following are considered particularly serious grounds for disciplinary responsibility applicable to all members of the University:
 - ❖ Entering the University while intoxicated or under the influence of narcotics, psychotropic substances, or inhalants; consuming or using, selling, supplying, or giving another person, free of charge, alcoholic beverages or substances classified by law as narcotics or psychotropic substances on university premises, as well as any other substance that produces similar effects on the behavior of the individual who uses it.
 - ❖ Carrying weapons of any kind on university premises.
 - ❖ Committing any act of violence and, in particular, gender-based violence that violates or restricts the human rights and integrity of members of the university community.

- ❖ Art. 97. If you commit any of these offenses, University Legislation provides for suspension for up to one year. In the event of a repeat offense, you may be permanently expelled from UNAM.

What is the Office of the University Rights Ombudsperson?

UNAM has an organization responsible for preserving and safeguarding the legal framework of our University: the Office of the University Rights Ombudsperson, Equality and Gender Violence Response (DDUIAVG).

- ❖ Its primary purpose is to receive complaints, request the corresponding reports, and conduct investigations regarding violations of university rights.
- ❖ This impartial body may issue well-founded and duly reasoned recommendations to the responsible university authorities in order to put an end to violations of the university rights of students, faculty members, and staff.

How to File a Complaint with the DDUIAVG

1

1. Complete the appropriate complaint form: University Rights or Gender.

2

2. Select the procedure format:

- Hybrid
- Remote — indicate the reason why you are unable to attend in person.

3

3. The DDUIAVG Psychology Department will contact you according to the format you selected and will provide counseling and emotional support, if necessary.

4

4. A member of the Legal Department will contact you for an interview. If you wish, during this meeting you may provide any supporting evidence you have.

5

5. Once your statement has been taken, you must sign it either by hand or electronically (scanned). Once this has been completed, your complaint will be formally filed.

6

6. The corresponding procedures will be initiated.

FES Cuautitlán has a DDUIAVG office, located on the ground floor of the Administration Building at Campo Cuatro.

At Campo Uno, you can find it in the office located next to the Animal Facility, on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9:00 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

If you have been the victim of or witnessed an incident that violates university regulations, you must file an administrative report with the Faculty's Legal Affairs Office.

You may seek assistance if any of your rights granted under University Legislation have been violated.

Here we guide you step by step.
